NGA Resources

Arts & the Economy: This section of the NGA website features reports and issue briefs documenting a variety of ways in which the arts and culture facilitate economic development for states.

States and Innovation: Setting the Stage for Job Creation: Resources from this March 2011 meeting illustrate the kinds of policies and practices state economic development officials are discussing. Included is a presentation by Colorado Creative Industries.

NASAA Resources

NASAA's Creative Economic Development Resource Center provides a convenient way for you to access information on a variety of subjects including:

- Economic impact studies from around the nation
- Information on state arts agencies' creative economy initiatives
- Cultural tourism resources
- NGA arts policy materials from prior years

NEA Resources

Creative Placemaking: This white paper explores the essential role of the arts and culture in placemaking. Included are case studies and recommendations for successful placemaking efforts.

MICD25: This special initiative commemorates the 25th anniversary of the NEA's Mayor's Institute on City Design (MICD) program. Profiles of 21 sites illustrate how the arts and design can transform civic life and public space.

Live from Your Neighborhood: A National Study of Outdoor Arts Festivals: This first-ever survey of U.S. outdoor arts festivals analyzes data from 1,413 outdoor festivals in nearly every state and Washington, DC.

NASAA's mission is to strengthen state arts agencies.
