Illinois Local Arts Network

The Local Arts Network (LAN) is a partnership program between the Illinois Arts Council and Arts Alliance Illinois to build capacity and excellence amongst local arts agencies so they can better serve their communities and to provide opportunities for validation and support. The LAN is open to leaders from local arts agencies across Illinois.

With guidance and leadership from the LAN Council, a team of local arts agency (LAA) leaders who assist with planning and implementation, Arts Alliance Illinois and the Illinois Arts Council:

- Provide professional development and resources to LAAs
- Encourage statewide and regional communication among LAAs
- Convene LAAs to exchange information and tools
- Activate LAA networks to build public value of and public will for the arts

Measure 9-94: Increasing the Transient Room Tax in Bend, Oregon.

“Arts and culture define a community’s personality and quality of life, but an investment in art and culture is also an investment in Bend’s creative economy.

“Bend’s creative economy supports 160 jobs, generates $16 million per year in local spending, and provides nearly 2 million cultural experiences per year.”
