Resources

Thank you for registering for NASAA's web seminar, Public Support for the Arts: A Global Perspective. As we mentioned during the session, this follow-up message contains additional resources we hope will be valuable to you. You can also learn more about past and future web seminars via the NASAA website.

Presenter Contact Information

Sarah Gardner
Executive Director
International Federation of Arts Councils and Culture Agencies
Email: s.gardner@ifacca.org
Phone: +61 2 9215 9018

Presenter Resources

IFACCA D'Art Report No. 16 is a 2010 report featuring an overview of case studies and good practice in national arts advocacy campaigns.

The Public Value of Culture: a literature review, by John Holden and Jordi Baltà (European Expert Network on Culture, 2012), includes references to more than 50 publications addressing the public value of culture; the intrinsic value of culture; and a variety of issues related to the economic, social, and political impacts of cultural practice and policy.

ACORNS is the biweekly on-line news service for and about arts councils and culture agencies.

Cultural Value Network is a collaborative initiative between U.K. and Australian partners with the objective to contribute to developing a critical and novel research agenda around cultural value and a constructive and collaborative debate among academic researchers, cultural policymakers and practitioners.

IFACCA Good Practice Guides assist arts councils and arts funding agencies to review, inform and improve their key functions.

IFACCA YouTube Channel offers a variety of videos featuring global arts leaders.

UNESCO Creative Economy Report 2013 is a special edition of the United Nations Creative Economy report that presents a rich body of evidence demonstrating local creative economy decision makers and stakeholders in action.

WorldCP provides an international database of cultural policies.