

Leveraging Partnerships in the Arts to Strengthen Public Health: Recommended Links and Resources

NASAA Arts, Health, and Community Well-Being Resources: Including a new infographic with links to state program examples in New Hampshire, Kansas, Massachusetts, Wyoming, Pennsylvania, and Rhode Island (2022).

Creating Healthy Communities through Cross-Sector Collaboration: The Arts and Public Health in America: A white paper offering a practical account of how public health can partner with the arts (Sonke, Golden, Francois et al., 2019).

CultureRx: Evaluation of a Social Prescription Pilot: A report from the first program in the US to formally offer “arts on prescription,” which was Mass Cultural Council’s “CultureRx” program in Massachusetts. The report shares findings, takeaways, and recommendations for other US communities (Golden et al., 2022).

The NeuroArts Blueprint: Advancing the Science of Arts, Health, and Wellbeing: “An authoritative, first-of-its-kind roadmap” for moving the science of art’s impacts on health “into widespread use” (2021).

Arts and Culture Can...: An interactive tool from ArtPlace America “highlighting thirteen ways that arts and culture can support equitable community development” (2020).

Arts, Culture, and Community Mental Health: A brief overview of partnerships that engaged the arts to address community mental health (Golden & Hand, 2017).

Arts and Culture in Public Health: An Evidence-Based Framework: An interactive resource designed to help public health agencies and practitioners identify opportunities to engage with the arts to meet health and wellbeing goals (Sonke & Golden, 2020).

Rhode Island Arts and Health Network: A video overview of the innovative work of the Rhode Island Arts and Health Network (2019).

Rhode Island Department of Health Art & Health Resources which include the Rhode Island State Arts and Health Plan and Arts and Health “center” Visioning Document, and Jazzmen Lee Johnson’s Things We Share cookbook.